

Starting or relocating a business? You are looking for LeClaire, Iowa, the region's most distinctive location.

The community of LeClaire Iowa is a small town located at the intersection of the Mississippi River and I-80, just 2 1/2 hours from Chicago and 1 hour from the University of Iowa. Within 20 minutes of LeClaire, you will find the amenities of the Quad Cities and an international airport. Our cost of living is among the lowest in the nation, and we have access to a skilled work force of over 200,000 people in the region. Founded over 175 years ago, LeClaire enjoys a rich history as a town settled by river boat pilots and is the birth place of Buffalo Bill Cody. LeClaire has a strong tourism industry, a grounded business district, and is developing a light industrial community. The excellent school system supports LeClaire as a place to invest a family and/or a business. Let the Chamber of Commerce introduce you to the 'quality of life' in our region and the incentives our fair city provides.

LeClaire Chamber of Commerce, 2016

LeClaire Chamber of Commerce

Dear Prospective LeClaire Business Owner,

We appreciate your inquiry regarding establishing a business in our community.

It's an exciting time of growth and expansion for us, and we're certain you'll find our main business corridor to be the ideal location for retail, hospitality, and consumer services. In addition, we have development opportunities near the I-80 access ramp, as well as an area zoned for manufacturing activities in the north area of town.

We have compiled the attached information to facilitate your relocation to our community, or to assist as you consider LeClaire for a future business site.

Members of our business community and Chamber Board of Directors would be glad to meet with you to discuss the opportunities further and to answer any questions.

Thank you again for your inquiry... you'll soon understand why we say, "It's all there in LeClaire!"

Cordially,

Mike Clingingsmith
